WEEKLY LOG, OFFICE OF INTELLIGENCE COORDINATION

Interdepartmental Committee on Foreign Language Reference
Materials

1. Office of Training has submitted a proposal for the establishment of an Interdepartmental Committee on Foreign Language Reference Materials and requested that the views of the Offices of the Agency be secured. This proposal has been disseminated to the Offices and a meeting will be held on that paper Monday at 2:30, 11 August.

Interagency Priorities
Committee

I attended the Interagency Priorities Committee on Wednesday. The targets which have been prepared [REDACTED] for consideration by the IPC have been somewhat wide of the mark due to misunderstanding and I am trying to straighten this out with OSI, ORR, and OCI.

Meeting with the Requirements Officers of those Offices on Thursday afternoon, we discussed among other things OCI's contribution to State Department political reporting guides. Up until recently there has been no contribution since the abolition of GRE. However, it is my belief after having talked earlier with Ted Nordbeck of IAD State, that something can be worked out whereby OCI requirements will be included in such guides. I have arranged for weekly meetings with the requirements officers to exchange ideas and to identify problems where we may be mutually helpful.

Approval for Dissemination
